

Service Launch

The Office of Faculty Development and Teaching Excellence

WELCOMES TO OUR TEAM

Rob Bledsoe, Associate Director for Faculty Development

Winona Hatcher, Instructional Designer

Georgianna (Geo) Laws, Instructional Designer

With these additions to our staff, we are now able to provide a greater variety of training and consulting. We can help with course design for online, hybrid, or face-to-face courses; instructional delivery; evaluations of teaching; scholarship of teaching and learning; career development; and many other aspects of professional development.

A special note to those who need assistance with an online course scheduled for spring semester: Please contact us as soon as possible as time is of the essence.

To those who need assistance with an online course scheduled for summer semester: Please contact us no later than 10/31 so that we can plan the appropriate training and consultation opportunities.
